Lessons From Improv [Stub]

Or

Jimmy Jia
jimmy@jimmyjia.com
Last Edit: April 14, 2019

Agenda for Intensive

AM

- Introductions

- Energy Balance

- Niagara Falls Case Study

PM

- The Utility Business Model

- Team Formation and Term Project

- General Q&A

Theory of Improv

- Public Speaking

- Innovation

- Creation
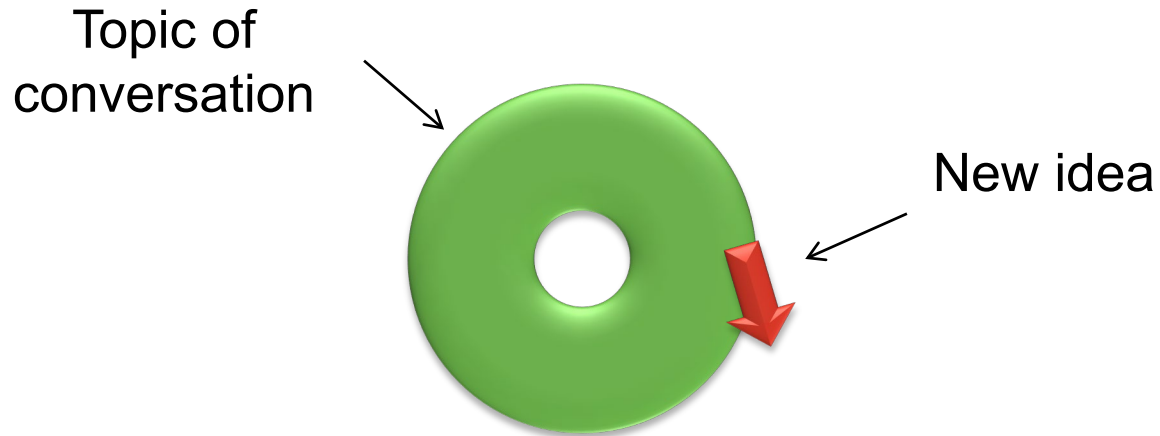

Skills

Look + Listen   ==   Notice

Awareness   ==   React Accordingly

Inclusion   == Teamwork
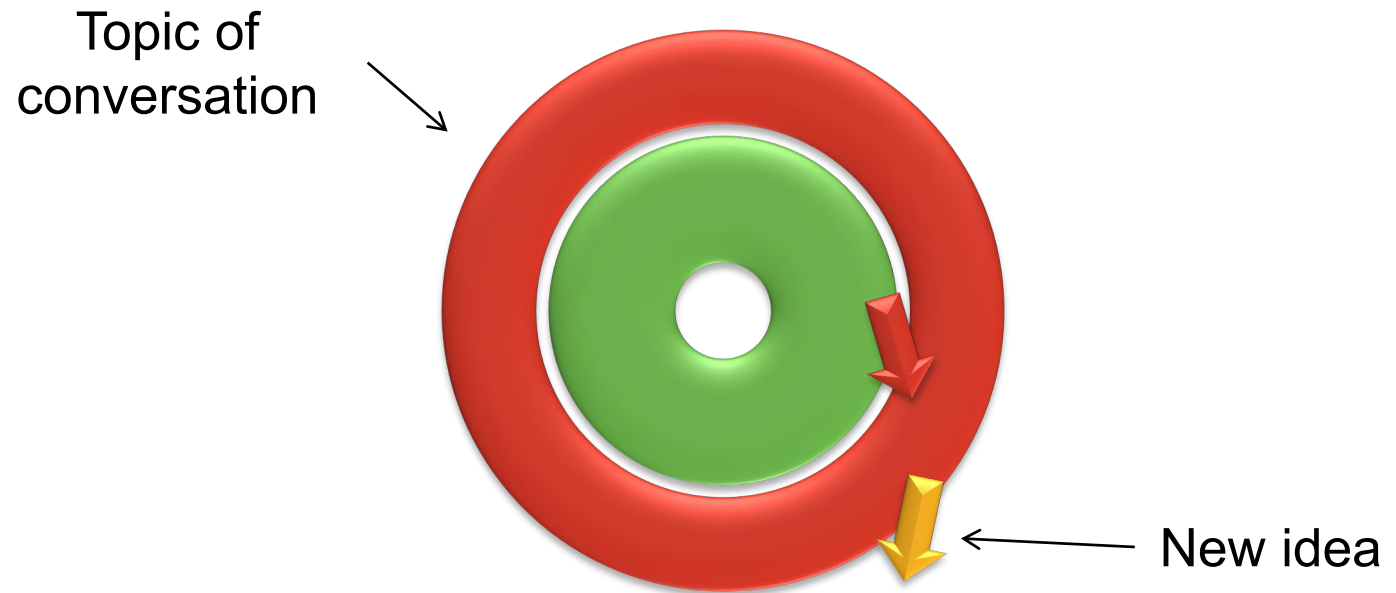

Test Boundaries   ==   Innovation / Leadership

Conversation Momentum

- Keeping conversations going
- Rhythm is important

Topic of conversation

New idea

- Momentum is important
- Adding information is important

Conversation Momentum

Topic of conversation

New idea

Conversation Momentum

Conversation Momentum

CONTENT skills
Preparatory

Public Speaking

INNOVATION skills
Reactionary

Improv
Techniques to say the first thing on your mind

- No   Yes and …

- Ask a Question   Answer the question … because…

- Silence   I love X because of Y

- Get side tracked   Circle back to the beginning

Always ADD specific information.
Never SUBTRACT or BLOCK
If this is true, what else can be true?

How to "seed" inspiration

Many, diverse, frequent inputs needed!

- Read
- Listen
- Learn
- Converse

Even more, diverse, rapid outputs required!
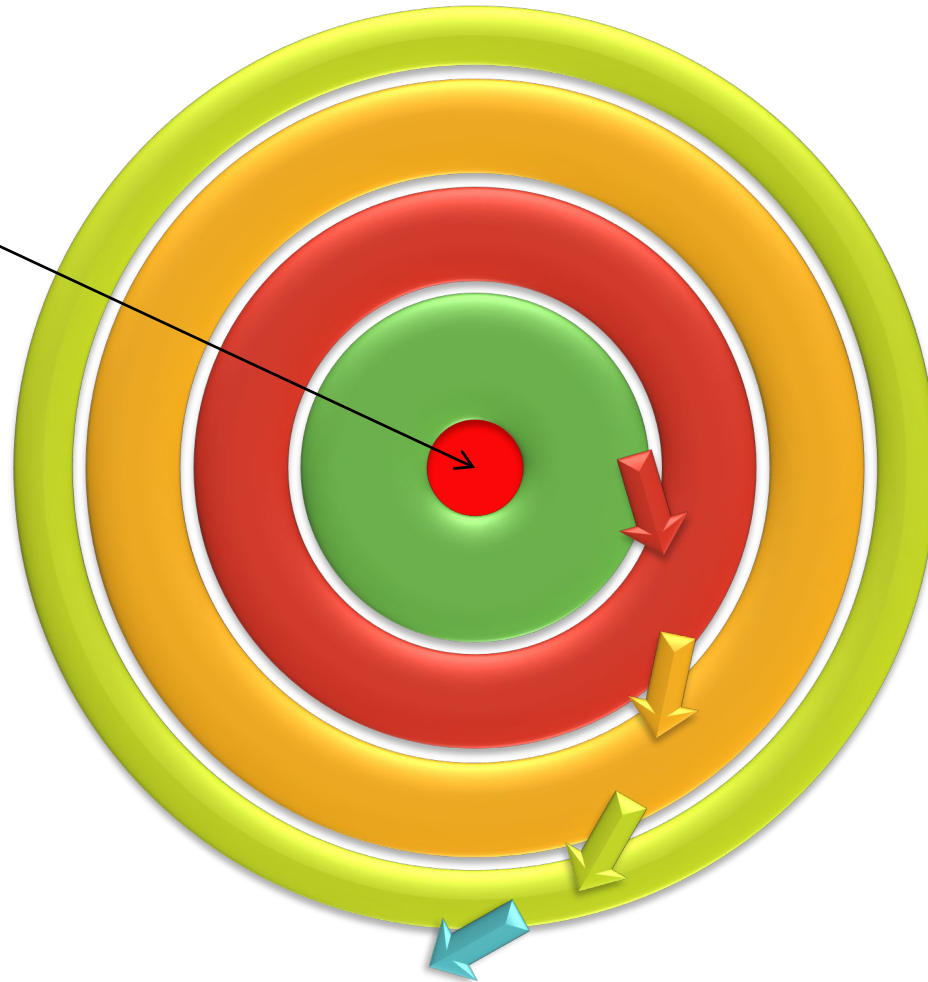

- Write
- Speak
- Draw
- Play
- Debate
- Create

Innovation happens when you run out of ideas!

Know thyself

Know thyself

Your emotion

Know thyself

Be confident
of your emotions

And passion will flow

Passion